

Declaration of The Revolutionary Committee for Unity and Action

Appeal to the Algerian people

Algerian people militant for freedom ...

The Algerian people in their peaceful uprising have made the whole world hear the voice of their civil and civilized revolution. It is the same people who have suffered abuse throughout history, suffered inhuman colonialism against which led an armed revolt on November 1, 1954.

The Algerian people did not raise on 22 February 2019 for social demands but revolted for the independence, freedom, justice and democracy in accordance with universal values and the basic principles of the United Nations and international laws.

The Algerian revolution "Hirak", has succeeded in destabilizing the actual regime, but the absence of a political resistance class, the presence of influential pseudo-nationalist who are in fact agents of the renewed regime, and the lies backed by a corrupt media force working for a criminal organization whose mission is to subjugate the Algerian people to service the interests of the neo-colonialism, all stood in the way of the people's fulfillment of their demands.

In order to confront the major changes known to the geopolitical world and to confront the arrogance and stubbornness of the neo-colonial powers, like our predecessors, the founding fathers of the November 1954 revolution. The technocratic revolutionaries with no political or ideological affiliation decided to establish the Revolutionary Committee for Unity and Action (CRUA) to unite all energies to ensure coordination and political representation, as well as the translation of popular instructions in the country and abroad.

The Revolutionary Committee for Unity and Action "CRUA" is an amorphous mobile structure that makes it unlikely to be manipulated.

The CRUA is the revolutionary thought and action of the Algerian people.

The CRUA wants itself to be the center of coordination and revolutionary synergy.

The CRUA is ready to receive all goodwill skills.

The union of committed revolutionary skills will be born democratically, at the moment of the expansion of the CRUA, technical and operational leadership capable of successfully leading the Algerian revolution.

That is why the CRUA is the link between all technical skills whether in the country or abroad, it is this committee that will enable us to overcome the multi-dimensional crisis that our country is going through.

Our Goals:

By the birth of a political pole representing the popular revolution:

- The complete and unconditional national independence.
- The respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms.
- The establishment of a state of law.

The Revolutionary Committee for Unity and Action is competent of organizing the resistance of any nature.

It is therefore time for justice to be done by the people and for the people.

The current political crisis is maintained by a criminal organization that does not hesitate to use all immoral means to enslave the people.

For this reason, the Revolutionary Committee for Unity and Action appeals to:

- Syndicates.
- Professional organizations.
- Student Unions.
- Associations.
- Corporations.
- Social media and media activists.

And all citizens to join the Revolutionary Committee for Unity and Action.
